Barbara Aboushahba, Editor

Dear Ladies,

At our April 15th, 2009 luncheon at the Vines Restaurant I was accepted as being your President again for the year 2009-2010. My hard working Executive Board was also accepted for the coming year, except that Nancy May will take the place of Barbara Aboushahba as 2nd VP. Barbara will stay on as webmistress and newsletter editor.

This second year will be smooth sailing for all of us. I want to take this opportunity to thank all the ladies on the Board and also thank members at large who have helped this Board deal with issues that were new to us.

We are already working on next year's luncheons and programs and looking forward to seeing more of you involved in activities in the coming months.

Our installation and last luncheon for the year will be May 21st at Ruth's Chris Steakhouse. Please make your luncheon reservations ASAP.

TROOP CAP by Sharon Robinson

Anyone interested in making caps for the troops? Below is the crochet pattern. If you bring your finished caps to the monthly luncheon or a craft group meeting, we will send them to Operations Shoebox. Use 4 ply yarn, wool or acrylic is acceptable. Olive Green, Pink, Lilac, Black, Beige, or Brown H hook

These caps are worn under the soldier's helmets and are very much desired by the men and women in uniform.

The WOW Book Club is for you if you like to read. Even if you can't come every month, come when you can. On May 4th we will be discussing The Samurai's Garden by Gail Tsukiyama. We meet at the Borders bookstore in front of West Oaks Mall at 11:00 a.m. We often go out to lunch afterwards.
