Barbara Aboushahba, Editor

Dear Ladies,

I want to thank everyone who participated in our mini-fundraiser at the April luncheon, especially the event organizers Darby Turnipseed and Kelli Greene. Also great big thank you goes to the Craft group who wrapped all of the donations.

Since this is my last letter, I would like to thank the Executive Board of this fine club. They volunteered to do anything that needed to be done without complaint. A big thank you goes to Mary Greene who offered her home for our meetings. She is the best.

Thank you also to the members for their participation in our luncheons and our fund raising over the years. You have been extremely generous. I hope to see many of you at future luncheons.

Spring Egg Basket - April Luncheon

We had a fund raiser at the April luncheon. $415.00 was raised in selling the 94 eggs at the Spring Egg Raffle at the April Luncheon! A special thank you to all the WOW members that bought a $5 egg! Thank you to the WOW members that donated very nice gifts and gift cards; thank you to the craft group for the pretty gift wrapping; thank you to Kelli Greene for the table display of the gifts. It was fun to watch the unwrapping of the gifts. We have 11 gifts that remain and they will be part of the 50/50 drawing at the May luncheon. Thank you to everyone for their support of our two charities this year. ~ Darby Turnipseed 407-491-7415 darby0209@yahoo.com

From Fran

Thank you for all the cards and letters sent in sympathy for the loss of my husband. I heard from new members and old. My WOW friends are really helping me adjust to my life without Lou.

Nancy May is recovering from surgery, Joan Dullmeyer is in the hospital with pneumonia, Irma Rosenzweig is finally pain-free after a year. Geri Hasley is doing well with her medical treatment.

Please continue to support A Gift for Teaching. Several WOW ladies volunteer on the first Wednesday morning of the month. More volunteers are needed. Call me. If you like to read to children, call me for more information. Whether your news is good or bad, contact me, Fran Jarolamek at 407-226-9880 or 407-765-8953 or franjwow@gmail.com
